
Monthly differences require ten complete means in each decade; grey = insufficient equal coverage. Recent complete months can contain provisional values. Headline decade means use matched YTD.