
Fractions use the available calendar grid in each year. First and last years are partial. Unflagged product estimates occupy the remaining fraction; interpolation is performed by the provider.